Tracy H. Okubo, PMP is a Program Analyst in the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC), Office of Technology in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Within OTECH she belongs to the Standards Division, Infrastructure and Innovation Branch (IIB). In addition to the FAST Pilots Tiger Team, Tracy oversees multiple cooperative agreements and contracts, and works with the Chief Scientist Division of ONC on Sync for Science (S4S) and Precision Medicine Initiative (PMI).

Tracy has over 20 years of experience in government, with approximately 15 years focused on policy and program implementation in health and human services. Prior to joining ONC, Tracy was the Senior Manager for Government Affairs at 'Ohana Health Plan (WellCare). Earlier work experience includes serving as a Legislative Aide for the late Congresswoman Patsy T. Mink (D-HI) and at the Hawai'i State Legislature, and as the Senior Policy Advisor and Legislative Liaison to the Director for the Hawai'i Department of Human Services. She has authored several bills and has led complex program implementations, including the launch of the Medicare Part D Program in Hawai'i. Tracy also served on the boards of several organizations; in 2009 she was appointed by then-Governor Linda Lingle (R-HI) and unanimously confirmed by the State Senate to serve on the Hawai'i Health Planning Council representing the Honolulu Subarea. Tracy has a Bachelor of Arts degree in U.S. History from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, and is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP®).

Tracy is a big Harry Potter fan, in addition to LOTRs and GoT. Ironically though, Tracy, nor anyone in her immediate family has ever seen a single Star Wars movie. She is the 'Ukulele player and lead singer of the ONC band, The Mollie Dookers. A big sports fan, Tracy roots for the Capitals (NHL), Nationals (MLB), Titans (NFL), and Knicks (NBA), and also belongs to the ONC Spring League Kickball team, The FHIRBallers.
